

World Literature - Literary History of a Country Project

Present the literary background and major accomplishments of your chosen country.

Choose a book written by one of the authors you researched.

Read and write a reaction paper for the book.

Project due on the due date you negotiate, but it must be completed prior to March 27, 2009

Written book reaction due on or before Tuesday, April 14, 2009 (100 points)

Project should include:

- literary background and major literary movements of the country
- political, military and cultural events in relation to the literary developments you are discussing
- important authors and their contributions
- pictures, video clips, links that support your presentation
- relevant works cited information for content, pictures and related files

Presentation on your chosen due date prior to March 27, 2009

- identify the major literary developments and authors of your country
- show highlights of your research on the wiki
- tell what interested, intrigued or surprised you in your research.

Book reaction should include:

- an analysis of the book in the context of the historical literary background, cultural or political environment from or about which it is written
- your reaction to theme, characters, plot, writing style or anything else that interests you
